

TEA Program Timeline ~ Implementing the College Readiness Standards

Social Studies

	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013
House bill 1, Article 5 (79th Legislature, 3rd called session) & Other TEA/TECB Activities		May/June: 79th Legislature, 3 rd Called Session Passes HB 1	Sept: CCRT works with VTs to increase quality of CRS Nov: CCRT endorses incorporating CRS into the curriculum. Academic Excellence and Research (AER) subcommittee of THECB endorses CRS	Jan 24: PHASE I Completed ? THECB adopts CRS Feb: Curriculum staff conducts an internal crosswalk between TEKS and CRS to inform TEKS and EOCs TBD: THECB transmits CRS to Commissioner of Education for approval Phase II for HB 1 Begins Mar: Reconstitute VTs and Begin Nomination Process to Appoint New Members	July: Phase III Planning Begins		Sept: Social Studies CRS Instructional Materials Required by HB 1 to be in Schools
Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) Revision Process Aligned with the Instructional Materials Process					Sept: SBOE meets to adopt for 1 st reading and filing of revised Social Studies TEKS Nov: SBOE adopts Social Studies TEKS, second reading	Begin PD Activities for Social Studies TEKS	Fall: Proposed Implementation of Social Studies TEKS
End-of-Course Assessments	December: Governor issues Executive Order RP53, calling for development of a series of voluntary assessments in science, mathematics, and other subjects assessed by the exit level TAKS	Spring/Summer: Development of an EOC assessment in U.S. History initiated under Executive Order RP53	May: Senate Bill 1031 was passed by the 80 th Texas Legislature, requiring that TAKS tests at grades 9–11 be phased out and replaced with end-of-course assessments for 12 high school courses, including World Geography, World History, and United States History. Summer: Development of an EOC assessment in World Geography initiated	May: U.S. History EOC assessment to be field-tested	Spring: Planning for the development of an EOC assessment in World History to be initiated. May: U.S. History EOC voluntary online assessment to be administered for the first time May: World Geography EOC assessment to be field-tested	January: Content of the World Geography, World History, and U.S. History EOC assessments to be reviewed and modified, as appropriate, to ensure that this content is aligned to the revised TEKS for those courses May: World Geography EOC voluntary online assessment to be administered for the first time	May: World History EOC assessment to be field-tested	*The EOC assessments become the graduation requirement for the freshman class of 2011–2012. May: World Geography, World History, and U.S. History EOC assessments become mandatory and will be administered online and on paper
Instructional Materials Proclamations and Adoption						Spring: Call for Proc 2012 Social Studies Materials		Nov: Adopt Proc 2013 Social Studies Instructional Materials and ELA Electives (Speech, Debate, etc.) Instructional Materials	Sept: Social Studies Instructional Materials and ELA Electives Instructional Materials in schools